

Place a small head-shot picture of the child where indicated.
Cut out and laminate the above cards.
Cut out the squares below and glue to library pockets.
Hang the library pockets near the edge of your schoolroom for the children to place the above cards in to “clock” into and out of school.

